

Content

The Social and Cultural Consequences of Being Childless in Poor-Resource Areas Frank VAN BALEN (the Netherlands)	1
Considerations regarding government funding of assisted reproductive techniques in low-resource settings Silke DYER (South Africa)	17
Male perspectives on infertility and assisted reproductive technologies (ART) in sub-Saharan contexts Viola HOERBST (Portugal)	22
Misery of Empty Laps: Life of childless women in Bangladesh Papreen NAHAR (Bangladesh)	28
Fertility treatments under semi/occupation: The case of East Jerusalem Daphna BIRENBAUM-CARMEL (Israel), Ronit KOCHMAN-HAIMOV (Israel)	35
Healers, nurses, obsgynecologists dealing with women in the quest to become pregnant in the south of Mozambique Esmeralda MARIANO (Mozambique)	43
Negotiating boundaries: Accessing donor gametes in India Anjali WIDGE (India), John CLELAND (United Kingdom)	51
Infertility and Treatment Seeking in India: Findings from District Level Household Survey Sayeed UNISA (India)	59
Summary of an Expert meeting on “Social Apects of Accessable Infertility Care in Developing Countries” Willem OMBELET (Belgium), Frank VAN BALEN (the Netherlands)	66